- The 20th edition of this competition
- There are 49 events on the program, 24 male, 24 female and one mixed.
- In the 42-year history of the World Championships, Tokyo becomes the first city to host the championships on a second occasion. Japan is the first country to hold the championships on three occasions.
- International technical officials from Australia: Photo Finish Judge - Janet Nixon, Jury of Appeal - Brian Roe, World Athletics referee Helen Roberts and World Athletics Race Walking Judge – Zoe Eastwood.
- Prize money (in US $):
Individual events: 1st $70,000, 2nd $35,000, 3rd $22,000, 4th $16,000, 5th $11,000, 6th $7,000, 7th $6,000, 8th $5,000
Relays: 1st $80,000, 2nd $40,000, 3rd $20,000, 4th $16,000, 5th $12,000, 6th $8,000, 7th $6,000, 8th $4,000.
World record: $100,000
- For the Combined Events, the leading Athlete after each event will be given a special bib with a different background colour to be worn on the chest.
- The defending World Champion and the current World Leader competing in an individual event will wear a special bib to be worn on the chest.
- The Opening Ceremony will take place on Saturday 13 September in the stadium, right before the evening session.
- The Marathon and Race Walks Start and Finish are in Tokyo National Stadium.
- The synthetic surface of the competition areas at Tokyo National Stadium is Mondotrack WS-TY and is a 9-lane track.
- Transponder timing will be used for all Track Events for intermediate times and to assist with lap counting.
- Seiko and World Athletics are teaming up to revolutionise timing in out-of-stadium events with an innovative GPS-based technology. This lightweight device, weighing just 42 grams, is designed to sit comfortably between an athlete's shoulder blades, allowing it to deliver richer real-time data than traditional transponders. World Athletics is continuing to test this technology and invites athletes to participate. Volunteers will wear the GPS unit in a small pouch attached to their vest, ensuring minimal interference with performance. Feedback from participating athletes - collected via a short survey - will be vital in refining the system.

RULES

- No repechages will be held at the Tokyo World Athletics Championships.

Mixed Relay

In the Mixed 4x400m Relay, the order in which all of the teams shall run in all rounds, will be Man-Woman-Man-Woman and the number of substitutes is limited to one single athlete.

Horizontal Field Events (throws and horizontal jumps)

Round progression of the Horizontal Field Events:

- 12 athletes to start and take 3 attempts – worst 2 eliminated
- 10 to take next attempt – worst 2 eliminated
- 8 to take next attempt – worst 2 eliminated
- 6 to take last attempt to determine podium

Hot Seats

Hot Seats will be used for 100m, 100mH, 110mH, 200m, 400m, 400mH, 800m. Officials will guide the athletes whose qualification to the following round is pending to the seats located before the entrance to the Mixed Area. Host Broadcast cameras will capture shots from the Hot Seats as the heats/semi-finals are played out, the shots will be supplemented with an updated graphic after every heat/semi-final. These pictures will also be used by event presentation on the stadium screens.

Athlete Replacement Policy

Trying to avoid empty lanes or starting places in Finals and Semi-Finals at Tokyo 2025, when these are due to withdrawals from injury or other justifiable reasons, and therefore approved, an Athlete Replacement Policy will be in place based on following regulations:

Following Round 1 and Semi Finals in Track Events and Qualifying Rounds in Field Events, two athletes will assume the position of substitutes to be included in the next round if there is a withdrawal of a previously qualified athlete.

The substitute athletes will be determined as follows:

- For Track Events, they shall be determined by the next fastest times across all of the Round 1 Heats or Semi Finals, as the case may be.
- For Field Events, they shall be determined by the next best performances.

Where an additional athlete has been advanced to the next round by the relevant Referee or the Jury of Appeal, no athlete shall be substituted unless a second athlete withdraws.

Normally only two athletes will be listed as substitutes, but if the time available allows additional athletes may be named and offered places either to cover any particular withdrawal or should more withdrawals occur.

MEDAL PRESENTATIONS

Instant Medals

As per the last edition of the World Athletics Championships in Oregon and Budapest, Instant Medals will be presented to the gold, silver and bronze medallists directly after their events, once the results have been made official. The idea behind Instant Medals is to let the athletes complete their lap of honour wearing the medals just won. It provides an opportunity for friends, family and the crowd in general to see the athletes with their medals given that the official ceremony will take place on the following day (apart from events on the final day).

It should be noted that:

- The presentation of Instant Medals is completely informal, there is no 'official' protocol
- Instant Medals do not replace the official medal ceremony (see below)
- Instant Medals will be delivered to the athletes on the field of play
- The presentation of Instant Medals is an add-on to the traditional lap of honour
- It is possible (though not probable) that Instant Medals could be presented after an athlete has started a lap of honour
- The athletes will wear their medals through the live mixed zone before handing them back to the LOC for engraving
- Instant Medals are for individual disciplines in the stadium and for road events

Medal Ceremonies

A bespoke Medal Plaza within the Japan National Stadium will stage all medal ceremonies throughout the world championships. See map for location:

For events on days 1 to 8, the presentation of medals will take place on the following day. In other words. A detailed Medal Ceremony Timetable will be provided ahead of the event, also taking into consideration potential doubling.

All ceremonies will take place at the Medal Plaza right before the evening session gets started, with exception of Day 7 Friday and Day 9 Sunday, where the Medal Ceremonies will be held between the first and the second Combined Events Discipline of that session.

For events on day 9 evening session, the medal ceremonies will take place, once again at Medal Plaza, but this time starting 20 minutes after end of competition is concluded.

VENUES

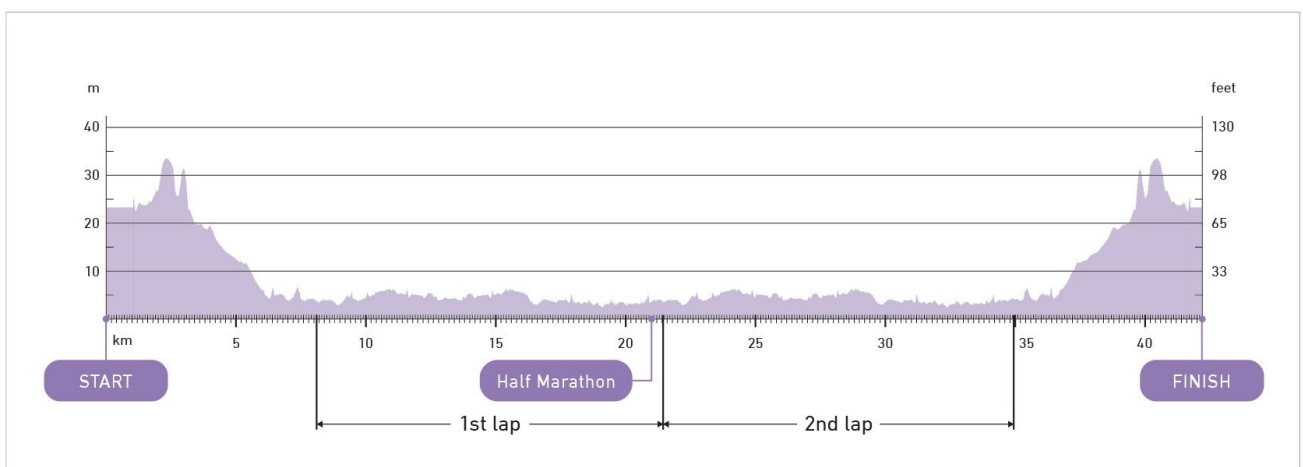

- The two competition warm-up tracks are a bus ride away.
- However, for the finalists of the 100m, 100mH and 110mH whose semi-finals take place in the same session, athletes will access the Stadium indoor track for the second warm-up.

Marathon Course

The Marathon course will start and finish at the Japan National Stadium, winding all the way into the heart of Tokyo downtown, towards Ginza, turning on the corner of the beautiful Seiko building and Akihabara district on its way. More details: Start with one and a quarter laps around the Japan National Stadium - Tomihisacho-W. - Suidobashi - Jimbocho - Sudacho - Akihabara (first turning point) - Ginza 4-chome (second turning point) - Sudacho - Jimbocho - Tokyo Station (third turning point) - Jimbocho - Suidobashi - Tomihisacho-W.- finish at the Japan National Stadium. For the 35km Race Walk, the women and men competitors will start at the same time.
