ABOUT THE MEDIA GUIDE

This is your one stop shop of information about the Australian Athletics team at the World U20 Championships. The document will assist all areas of media from broadcast to written press and photographers. A feature is the team sorted by postcode – useful for local media. It is also a great resource for Member Associations, athletics clubs and fans.

2026 World Athletics U20 Championships

- XXI edition
- Eugene, Oregon USA
- Eugene becomes the first city to host the event a second occasion.
- Five days of competition, August 5- 9
- 147 teams, largest for 12 years, since the last time it was held in Eugene.
- 1800 athletes. This is a record the previous most was 1558 athletes in Lima in 2024.
- 46 events, 22 male, 22 female and two mixed relays. There is one new event, the mixed 4x100m relay.
- Hayward Field 'Track Town USA' at the University of Oregon.

Australian athletes with connections to Eugene, Hayward Field and TrackTown USA

Hayward Field and Eugene is known as TrackTown USA. A number of athletes have strong connections:

- The 2014 World Juniors were at Hayward Field, and in 2022 World Champs team members to compete there 8 years earlier were:
 - Joel Baden – High Jump
 - Matty Denny - Discus, Hammer
 - Cedric Dubler – Decathlon (silver medal)
 - Georgia Griffith – 800m & 4x400m relay
 - Jessica Hull – 3000m
 - Nina Kennedy – Pole vault
 - Nicola McDermott – High Jump
 - Kurtis Marschall – Pole Vault
- Three NSW athletes won NCAA title at the 2018 NCAA Championships. Jessica Hull and Olli Hoare won 1500m titles and Mackenzie Little the Javelin gold.
- For Jessica Hull, she would make it her home away from home. She had made her international debut at the field in 2014 at the World Juniors, where she placed seventh in the 3000m. She would go on to attend the University of Oregon and train and compete at the venue.
